

NCKU Notice of Course Enrollment

In accordance with the NCKU calendar for the 2023-24 academic year and related enrollment regulations, this notice of course enrollment, coded as (112) Jiao-Zhu-Zi No. 55, was issued by the Office of Academic Affairs on December 6, 2023 to provide registration instructions for course enrollment for the spring semester of 2024.

Registration and Enrollment Instructions:

- I. The NCKU Course Information and Course Enrollment System (NCIACES) is equipped with a pre-registration function. Please make best use of the function for course enrollment according to the operations manual (https://reg-acad.ncku.edu.tw/var/file/41/1041/img/2680/choose_re.htm.) This function is optional. Use it or not, your rights to course registration during the course enrollment period will not be affected. Latest information will be published on the homepage of the system.
- II. Students are allowed to use the pre-registration function scheduled to be open during each stage of course enrollment from the confirmation stage of required course enrollments (administered by the Division of the Registrar) for undergraduate programs to the end of the third stage of course enrollment. In consideration of internet traffic and potential course changes, the pre-registration function is programmed to list courses regardless of course-designated restrictions or prerequisites. The system will not screen pre-registered courses in terms of enrollment-related setups until the stage of online enrollment for course addition. Accordingly, the pre-registered course list will not be automatically imported into your final course enrollment list. Students are required to complete course addition during the designated online course enrollment stage.
- III. Intercollegiate transfer students admitted in the spring semester of the 2023-24 academic year are enrolled in advance by the Division of Registrar in their major program-designated required courses and are allowed to register for courses, starting from the second stage of course enrollment.
- IV. For continuing students, please ensure you can log onto the system before the 1st Stage of Course Enrollment. If you fail to log onto the system with your password, please contact the Cheng Kung Portal Consulting Services on the 1st floor of the Computer and Network Center (ext. 61010, 61045). To increase the effectiveness of course enrollment, the Cheng Kung Portal will not be available for you to log in for course registration during the three stages of online course enrollment. Please log onto the online course enrollment system to register for courses. (Please read FAQs Q1 on the website of NCIACES).
- V. The maximum number of courses that can be applied for via online registration designated for the second and third stages of course enrollment, is shown in the following table for various categories:

Category (Code)	Designated students	Maximum no. of courses
General Education (A9)	Undergraduate students	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Students are required to register online for preferred courses for computer-selected enrollment.2. Each student is allowed to register for a maximum of 3 courses (not including a course of Exploring Tainan) no later than the 2nd stage.3. Students are allowed to enter the number of courses they intend to be enrolled in when they register online for preferred courses for computer-select enrollment during the third stage of course enrollment.

Exploring Tainan (AF)	Undergraduate students	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A Chinese course of Exploring Tainan(AF) is not listed as an option for online registration. Students are enrolled in advance by the Division of the Registrar into this course, and they shall choose their routes on the Route Selection System. 2. Freshman students admitted in the fall semester of 2023 shall be enrolled in advance by the Division of the Registrar in the course of Exploring Tainan in two batches to attend classes in the fall semester (those whose student ID contains an eighth-digit odd number) or the spring semester (those whose student ID contains an eighth-digit even number). Reenrolling students and students who are required to repeat the course shall also be enrolled in advance by the Division of the Registrar in the course. For further information, please contact the Division of the Registrar (regarding course enrollment) and the Office of Exploring Tainan (踏溯台南辦公室) under the College of Liberal Arts (regarding the Route Selection System) at ext. 52012. 3. VI. Under special circumstances (such as minor study, double-major study or the Educational Program), students who need to take courses over or below the required number of credits and are not allowed to register online for course enrollment should complete and submit a course overload or underload request form with a copy of transcript after the end of the 2nd stage (2/2) and before the end of the 3rd stage (3/7), which shall be approved by the relevant offices and processed by the Division of the Registrar.

VII. Students shall log on to the link for flexible intensive course enrollment on the NCIACES website to submit an application in order to specify reasons to drop or withdraw from any flexible intensive courses (microcredit courses). After the start of the course, enrolled students are not allowed to drop it. They are allowed only to withdraw from the course before the end of the course. Under specific circumstances, such as unscheduled courses or the closure of the link during the first stage of course enrollment, students unable to process applications online shall submit an application with a written report (A4 paper, free format) to drop or withdraw from a course according to the related notice published on the webpage of the academic unit offering the course. Should there be no notice, please contact the responsible staffer of the academic unit offering the course.

- VIII. Coursera (online courses): Undergraduate students who receive approval from their major departments are allowed to enroll in Coursera upon the import of approved roster into the course enrollment system.
- IX. Students are allowed to drop courses on the NCIACES website during 1-3 stage of course enrollment. They should keep a file/copy of registration records for every stage of course enrollment and check out “My Course Schedule” online to confirm their course additions (drops or withdrawals) by the designated deadlines.
- X. Please do not use any plug-in to process your course enrollment, as it may interrupt normal operation of the online enrollment system. If you do use a plug-in, your IP address will be blocked and you will be held solely responsible for any resulting losses. Students are advised to avoid interfering with the computer of another person or infringing upon the rights and interests of the public or another person through the use of computer programs.
- XI. Please check out enrollment-related regulations, including rules for computer-selected course enrollment in General Education, on the NCIACES website. Registration by designated students in every stage of course enrollment is regulated, as shown in the NCKU Course Enrollment Schedule Spring Semester, 2024 attached below this notice.

1 st Stage of Course Enrollment: Preliminary Enrollment
Duration	9:00, January 10 to 17:00, January 15
Designated Students	All students (excluding intercollegiate transfer students admitted in the Spring semester of 2024 or those who fail to complete the student basic information form)
Notes	General Instructions on Course Enrollment: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. All continuing students, except those from the Department of Medicine in the fifth year of study, in the undergraduate programs are enrolled by the Division of the Registrar in the department-designated required courses for their major program. All continuing students, except Multi-Disciplinary Studies Program students, are only allowed to register for courses designated for their own class/class category and for preferred courses for computer-selected enrollment. During this stage, required courses are available for enrollment with no quota limit, while elective courses are generally set for enrollment with a designated quota limit. An elective course may be set for enrollment with no

- quota limit by the course-offering department.
2. Undergraduate students are only allowed to register for courses designated for their own class. Those who have been enrolled in advance by the Division of the Registrar in a required-course group/class are only allowed to cancel the assigned enrollment. Any change in registration with regard to the assigned enrollment shall be completed during the second stage.
 3. If a course is conditionally set up with “no registration allowed during the first stage” in the course catalog system, it shall not be open to registration until the second stage.
 4. Transfer students (including those returning from Hong Kong or overseas Taiwanese students admitted under a special project) in sophomore or upper classes are allowed to register for courses designated for other levels in the same-category class under their major program. They are not allowed to register for any courses designated for another category of classes at any level, or any courses designated for the first semester of the freshman year.
 5. Students in double major/minor programs are allowed to register for courses designated of other levels for their second major/minor program. They are not allowed to register for any courses designated for the first semester of the freshman year.
 6. Under the semester-based class-grade advanced placement system (students may advance to an upper class-grade from fall or spring semester) starting from the spring semester of the 2023-24 academic year, a returning student from study suspension is allowed to register for courses in the department curriculum designated for the lower class and the upper class. For example, a freshman student returning from study suspension at the Department of Mathematics is allowed to register for courses in the department freshman and sophomore curriculum. However, returning students are only allowed to register for courses designated for their class category. For example, a sophomore student of Class Category C returning from study suspension at the Department of Mechanical Engineering is allowed to register for courses in the department freshman, sophomore and junior curriculum for Class Category C. The Department of Architecture is an exception based on its unique category classification. A sophomore student returning from study suspension is allowed to register for courses in the department freshman and sophomore curriculum for both Class Categories A and B. A junior student returning from study suspension is allowed to register for courses in the department sophomore curriculum for both Class Categories A and B. However, they are only allowed to register for courses in the department junior and senior curriculum for their class category.
 7. Multi-Disciplinary Studies Program students are allowed to register for courses offered by other departments for the same class level without enrollment requisites.
 8. Freshman students from the five departments of Economics, Psychology, Transportation and Communication Management Science, Industrial and Information Management, and Business Administration are enrolled in advance by Registrar Division in the course of Calculus. They are advised to personally confirm this course enrollment.

9. Registration for coded A3, A4, A5, A6, AA, AH, A1 701 (Online Remedial English), and A1 702 (Online English courses for graduate students) is scheduled for the second stage.
English Module Program (A1, serial numbers 101-500) for computer-selected enrollment is scheduled for the third stage.
10. Graduate students are only allowed to register for courses designated for their own graduate program during this stage. They shall be allowed to register for courses designated for other graduate programs during the second stage.

Instructions on First Registration for Preferred Courses for Computer-Selected Enrollment:

1. Students are allowed to register for preferred courses for computer-selected enrollment, with a maximum of one course selected for each of the following categories, which will be announced on the NCIACES website before 17:00 on January 16. In case of a class scheduling conflict, students shall drop conflicting courses during the stage of online enrollment designated for dropping courses. First registration for preferred courses for computer-selected enrollment is regulated as follows:
 - (1) Undergraduate students only:
 - (1-1) General Education (A9): According to the GE computer-selected course enrollment regulations, a maximum of one course will be selected.
 - (1-2) Physical Education (A2): Students who have completed 4 PE courses (excluding outstanding student-athletes and students admitted through PE screening and review exams) are not allowed to register for preferred courses for computer-selected enrollment until the second stage to ensure a higher rate of course enrollment for those who have not completed required PE courses in this stage . A rate of 80% for freshman and sophomore students and 20% for juniors and seniors.
 - (1-3) General Chinese (A7): Starting from the 2021-2022 academic year, students will not be enrolled in advance by the Division of Registrar in the course of General Chinese. Those who have not completed 4 course credits are allowed to register for preferred courses for computer-selected enrollment based on weighted average, with a maximum of one course to be selected.
 - (1-4) English module courses (A1, serial numbers 101~500) :
Students admitted before the 2014-15 academic year are not subject to the class placement list. Students are not allowed to enroll in two or more English module courses with the same title.
 - (2) All students:
 - Second Foreign Language (A1, serial numbers 501~700):
A computer-selected enrollment based on weighted average shall be administered.
